GREAT NEWS!

Mark Your Calendars! Save the Dates!

The Parish Festival is happening August 7th—August 10th on the St. Vitus Church grounds

This will be our first festival as ONE new parish!
(Our new parish name should be confirmed before the festival begins!)

Our thanks and support goes to Mark Mijavec, who has stepped up to cook and manage the kitchen for the festival. A big job—but he's up to the task and looking forward to meeting all the dedicated volunteers who work at the festival each year.

WHAT'S NEXT?

A Meeting for All Volunteers is planned for May. This evening will be an opportunity to meet your fellow volunteers, both new and returning; to get first-hand information about the festival; to share details about the Safe Environment requirements—and of course, to enjoy good food in good company!
 Watch the parish bulletin and parish websites for details!

Kitchen volunteers—get ready! Calling men, women, and teens from all parishes!

Eggplant Day will be scheduled in June. Watch the bulletin—the date will be announced soon.

As we look forward to this year's festival, we also extend our gratitude to Cosimo Bullisco and his Family.

They happily gave many hours of dedicated service to oversee the kitchen duties and provided delicious food that made previous festivals great successes.
